BOARD OF HEALTH

REPORT OF CONTAGIOUS DISEASES

January 1, 1906, to January 1, 1907.

Diphtheria	1
Scarlet Fever	5
Typhoid Fever	2
Cerebro-Spinal Meningitis	1

Several suspected cases have been investigated.

ARTHUR G. SCOBORIA,

Agent, Precinct 1.

The following report of Agent of the Board of Health of Precincts Nos. 2 and 3 is submitted:

This part of Chelmsford is and always has been healthy. The natural drainage toward the Merrimack River and Stony Brook and a gravel soil have much to do with this.

If this healthy condition is to continue under the changing conditions something must soon be done in way of sewerage; better care must be taken of closets and out-houses.

Our tenement houses are not properly cared for; hen houses and hen yards are not kept clean and are in too close proximity to dwelling houses. Sanitary conditions at the North schools are a disgrace to the community and something should be done at once to correct this. The Rendering Plant between the North and West has given cause of complaint. It is evidently the desire of the proprietors of this establishment to conduct their business so that it will not be obnoxious to our citizens. Some action should be taken to ensure a supply of pure milk of the required standard. Stables, milk houses and milk containers are a source of danger.

I suggest that no person be allowed to sell milk without first obtaining a license to do so.

CONTAGIOUS AND INFECTIOUS

Scarlet Fever	18
Diphtheria	8
Membraneous Croup	1
Measles	2
Typhoid Fever	1

F. E. VARNEY, M. D.,

Agent Board of Health,

Precincts Nos. 2 and 3.

REPORT OF THE CEMETERY COMMISSION

The Commission is pleased to report a satisfactory condition of the five cemeteries under its charge.

There has been no new work done at Forefathers during the past year.

At Pine Ridge we have had the growth kept down on that section not yet prepared for burial purposes; done more clearing on the south portion and had all kept in an attractive condition.

We are very happy to make mention of the good work accomplished at the West cemetery. Especially to note the generous public spirit manifested by the lot owners, which resulted in the erection of a building in the centre circle to afford protection from the heat of the day or inclement weather, as well as to give a place of rest to visitors weary in body or mind.

The local Superintendent, always enthusiastically interested in the work, has very artistically beautified its surroundings with lawn and shrubbery. Mr. Geo. F. Snow has assisted very generously here in improving the entrance and roadway to the cemetery. Other friends have kindly assisted in the general improvement. Special mention should also be made of the donation by Hon. H. E. Fletcher of the stone foundation for their building.

Altogether, the West cemetery is one of which our citizens may well be proud.

No new work has been done at Riverside or Hart Pond, but these grounds have been well cared for by their respective Superintendents. We now have 37 separate trust funds. A total of $4,650, with a yearly income of $186. While the earnings of these funds are applicable only to their respective lots, still it assists greatly in keeping up the general appearance.

There is a great deal to be done in all the cemeteries to bring them up to where they should be, but we feel that a very marked improvement has been made since the creation of this board and with the support of the people this will certainly continue.

The Commission has suffered a great loss the past year in the death of its chairman, Alexander J. Park. His going will not only be felt keenly by this board, but it means to the town the loss of a very able, consciencious and public spirited citizen.

REPORT OF TREE WARDEN AND LOCAL SUPERINTENDENT OF MOTH WORK

March 1, 1907.

In rendering my report as Tree Warden, I will state that during the past year, sixty trees have been set out upon the highways and four have been removed.

The ever increasing demand for the services of the tree warden shows that the tree warden law is generally respected.

There has been one wilful violation of the law reported, but, occurring so late in the year, the facts of the adjustment of the case will appear in the next report.

The presence of moths, both brown-tail and gypsy, has been the all-absorbing question. Acting under the direction of the State officials the trees upon the highways and public places of the town were cleared of brown-tail moths last winter, 1905-1906.

The people were generally interested in the cleaning of private estates. But despite all efforts at extermination, the results of the fall of 1906 showed a large increase in the numbers of the brown-tail moths, although efforts are still being made to suppress them.

One year ago we knew of but one gypsy moth nest in the town, while now our territory is generally infested, the pest having been found in over three hundred different places in the town. In August the State men scouted the town finding a total of 812 nests. Since then the town has been thoroughly scouted by local men, with the result of 751 nests, making a total of 1,563 nests which have been treated in the town.

Under directions from the State the principal thoroughfares of the town were cleaned of bushes and superfluous trees to prevent the rapid spreading of the moths. The work was carried on as long as the season would permit, which resulted in a very much improved condition of the roadsides.

We are required by the State to burlap the trees for a hundred feet around every infested location. The burlapping of trees is considered the most efficient means of extermination, but in many places we may have to resort to spraying.

The work has assumed proportions which require the constant employment of several men and is of great importance to the town, as it is only by strenuous efforts that the pests can be kept under control until parasites, which are the only hope of prominent entomologists, can be introduced.

Respectfully submitted.

ANNUAL REPORT

Of the School Committee and the Superintendent of Schools of the

TOWN OF CHELMSFORD

For the School Year Ending Feb. 28, 1907

School Committee, 1906-7

DR. FRED E. VARNEY, - - Term expires 1907

JOHN J. MONAHAN, - - Term expires 1908

CHARLES H. ELLIS, - - Term expires 1909

Superintendent of Schools,

FREDERICK L. KENDALL.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE, 1906-07

TO THE CITIZENS OF CHELMSFORD: -

Your Committee presents herewith its report for the fiscal year ending February 22, 1907, together with that of our Superintendent.

The Committee cannot make the unqualified assertion that our schools are doing superior work. Some of them are not as satisfactory as we would like to report them.

We believe that in general the work accomplished in our schools is good, that is improving, and that with the active, steady co-operation of all our citizens, particularly of those parents whose children are in school, we will be able to give our children a training equal to that received in the schools of any town in Massachusetts.

Our schools have suffered during the past year from the many changes and substitutions in the teaching force made necessary by sickness and resignations. We believe that both these causes may be materially mitigated by giving teachers adequate salaries. They would then be able to rest during vacation time, would return to their duties clear of head and strong of body, and we would not be continually losing trained teachers to other towns and cities where advantages and salaries are much greater than anything we can offer. Your Committee has given small increases of salary each year to those teachers who remain in the town's service. We propose to further increase the salaries of our competent teachers until in the judgment of the Committee they are receiving a fair return for their services.

More school accommodations must be furnished very soon. At South Chelmsford there is immediate need of a new two-room building, and an article has been inserted in the warrant for our next annual town meeting in relation to a new building at that place. At North Chelmsford both buildings are crowded and something must be done to relieve conditions there. At the Centre the building is being rapidly outgrown.

As it now appears to your Committee there must, within a short time, be two new buildings, one at the North and the other at the Centre, or one new building erected at some point nearly equidistant from North and Centre. If a location can be secured at some central point, and a building erected thereon to accommodate all the High School and Ninth Grade pupils in town, the question of new buildings will have been wisely solved; the town will have but one High School to maintain, and we believe our children will receive a much better training than it is at the present time possible to give them in the High Schools we are trying to run with underpaid teachers. The transportation problem that would arise would be met and worked out without causing undue hardship to anyone.

We believe Chelmsford desires to keep up and improve her standard in education. Your Committee invites intelligent criticism, and urges upon the parents the necessity of frequent visits to the school-room, that they may know of their own knowledge of the work that there is being done. We ask and expect of all citizens a continued and liberal interest in the education of our children.

RECOMMENDATIONS

We recommend the acquisition by the town of sufficient land around the Centre School to make a suitable play-ground. We think the present conditions are unsatisfactory, and small children are in continual danger of bodily injury while running back and forth across the street.

We recommend the appropriation of a sum of money to provide for Medical Examiners in the schools, in accordance with Chapter 502, Acts of 1906. Examinations already made by order of the State Authorities disclose in our schools one hundred and sixty cases of defective eyesight, and fifty-five cases of defective hearing.

We recommend the erection of a two-room schoolhouse at South Chelmsford. The present building is inadequate, and we do not consider it economy to spend any more money on it.

We recommend the appropriation of sums of money for the laying out and grading of the schoolhouse ground at West Chelmsford and East Chelmsford.

To enable us to properly meet the requirements for the coming year, we recommend the appropriation of the following sums of money: —

For	Teaching	$14,650	00
	Care	1,700
	Fuel	1,600	00
	Apparatus	100	00
	Text books and supplies	1,200	00
	Transportation	1,000	00
	Furniture and repairs	900	00
	Incidentals	200	00
	Total	$21,350	00

In order that all may understand the requirements expected from applicants for the position of teacher in our town schools:—

Applicants for position in grades One to Eight inclusive must be graduates of a Massachusetts State Normal School, or have had experience in teaching in Public Schools equal to Normal training.

For grades Nine and High School, College training is required.

Your attention is called to the report of our Superintendent of Schools, and we request that it be carefully read.

DR. FRED E. VARNEY, JOHN J. MONAHAN, CHARLES H. ELLIS, Committee.

TEACHERS

Since the writing of last year's report, seven of the teachers then on the force have resigned; namely, Miss Plaisted and Mrs. Furbush of the Centre school, Misses Shaw, Ramsay, Wheeler and Hoyt of the North school, and Miss Emerson of the West school.

Of these resignations, that of Miss Hoyt deserves more than a passing notice from the fact that when she tendered her resignation just before the Christmas vacation she had just completed twenty-six years of continuous teaching in the same school. Her abundant geniality, and her faith and interest in the children who came to her for their start on the road to knowledge were so refreshing and inspiring, that while we regret her resignation, we can but wish her happiness and prosperity in her new sphere of activity.

The vacancies caused by these resignations have been filled by the election of a new teacher to the place vacated, or by the transfer of a teacher already in the service to a position which for some reason seemed more desirable. The vacancies caused by these transfers have been filled by the election of new teachers.

Miss Alice J. Potter of Marblehead, a graduate of Middlebury college, succeeded Miss Helen F. Plaisted as assistant in the Centre high school in January; and Miss J. Irena Gurney of Adams, a graduate of the Adams high school, and a teacher of experience, became the teacher of the Centre sixth and seventh grade room after the Christmas vacation. Previous to that time, four different teachers had been in charge of that room since the beginning of the fall term in September. The first one was obliged to leave on account of ill health, the next two were substitutes, and the fourth sent in her resignation just before Christmas. At the North school, Miss Lena R. Edmands of Saugus, a graduate of Boston University, has succeeded Miss Clara L. Shaw as assistant in the High school, and Miss Katherine M. Quinn of Lowell, a graduate of the Lowell Normal school, has the room formerly taught by Miss Sara E. Wheeler. Both of these teachers began work in September. On the same date, Misses Ena G. Macnutt of Chelmsford and Alice L. Clarke of Lowell, graduates of the Lowell Normal school, became teachers of the North Row and South Row schools, respectively. When Miss Macnutt was transferred to the West school, Miss Margaret C. Gookin of Lowell, also a graduate of the Lowell Normal school, was elected as her successor.

The following transfers have been made during the year:

Miss Harriet M. Hall from the Golden Cove school to the North school, grade II, September, 1906.

Miss Catherine E. McDermott from the South Row school to the West school, grades I, II, and III, September, 1906.

Miss Ellen R. Breen from the North Row school to the Golden Cove school, September, 1906.

Miss Catherine E. McDermott from the West school to the North school, grade I, January, 1907.

Miss Ena G. Macnutt from the North Row school to the West school, grades I, II, and III, January, 1907.

SALARIES

A committee appointed by the Middlesex County Teachers' Association something over a year ago to investigate the question of teachers' salaries endeavored to ascertain whether, during the last ten years, the salaries of grade teachers had increased; whether the cost of living had also increased; and whether or not, the increase in salaries, if any, had kept pace with the increased cost of living.

Figures obtained by this committee from eleven cities and eleven typical towns brought out the following facts regarding the changes during the last ten years.

Average increase in salary maxima in the eleven cities, 9.6 per cent.

Average increase in cost of living for teachers in the eleven cities, 19.6 per cent.

Average increase in salary maxima for the eleven towns, 12.3 per cent.

Average increase in cost of living for teachers in the eleven towns, 18.9 per cent.

Average increase in salary maxima for the twenty-two communities, 10.8 per cent.

Average increase in cost of living for teachers in the twentytwo communities, 19.3 per cent.

From these figures it is evident that while salaries have increased, they have not increased in the same ratio as has the cost of living.

The committee further states that it is their belief that the salaries of grade teachers are not commensurate with the requirements of the position, either professional or social. The best positions are open only to those who have had a thorough scholastic and normal school training together with some years of successful experience; and when in the position, the requirements in the way of dress and social obligations are such that a greater expenditure is necessary than in less prosperous times.

Further, the committee affirms that it should not be forgotten that there are many other lines of work open for women, in many of which they can earn as much, if not more, and with less nervous exhaustion. And unless teachers are paid good salaries, many of the brightest and strongest characters will prefer other lines of work where the financial return is greater. The teachers' terms of service will be shorter, their ambition will be checked, and they will have less opportunity for professional growth, an outcome which will be detrimental to the schools. A standard of salaries high enough to command the best talent is therefore of vast importance to the public.

In the opinion of the committee, "one of the chief obstacles to adequate financial compensation for teachers lies in the lack of appreciation on the part of the public; (a) that the most vital interests at stake in a community are those involved in public education, (b) that the best results in this field can be secured only by employing first-class teachers and making their tenure as permanent as possible, and (c) that first-class teaching talent and permanency of service on the part of the teachers cannot be secured unless reasonably high salaries are paid."

HIGH SCHOOLS

As noted elsewhere in this report, the assistants in each of the high schools, Miss Shaw and Miss Plaisted have resigned during the year, and their places have been taken by Miss Edmands and Miss Potter. These frequent changes will be inevitable, I presume, unless we pay larger salaries. Notwithstanding this disadvantage, I feel that good work is being done in each of the schools

A class of thirteen was graduated from the Centre school last June, eleven from the four-years' course, and two from the three-years' course. Of these, Mr Robert D. Russell and Miss Julia A. Atherton have been continuing their studies at a business college, and Misses Nora H. Brooke, Mary A. Dunn, Agnes V. Eaton, Alice R. Gould, Helen J. Lord, Elsie S. Perham, Margaret E Shinkwin and Eliza Spaulding entered the Lowell Normal school in September. By adding to this list the names of Miss Florence L. Feindel of the previous class and Misses Mary A. Garvey and Charlotte O. Lowe of the North school, class of nineteen hundred five, we have a total delegation of eleven in that school from Chelmsford.

There were no graduates from the North school last June.

At the present time, there are fifty-four high school pupils in the town, thirty-three in the Centre school and twenty-one in the North school. There are forty pupils in the three ninth grades, thus making a total of ninety-four in the ninth grades and high schools. If all of these could be brought together into one building, located about midway between the two large villages, several advantages would result; namely, the pupils would be separated from those in the lower grades, a more distinct high school spirit could be developed, the present duplication of classes could be dispensed with, more courses could be offered, the associating together of young people from different parts of the town would tend to develop the feeling of township unity, and all citizens would have a common and central point of interest.

At first thought this proposition may seem somewhat difficult, but a later and more careful thought may lead to the feeling that it is worth considering. A large number of the of the pupils would be within a mile and a half and but few would be more than two miles away. The chief objection would be the lack of public conveyance on Centre street. If, however, there should be a high school building in the place mentioned, there would be a tendency to build towards it, and this, in turn, would attract the attention of those interested in street railway transportation.

ENROLLMENT

The tabular statement which follows gives the enrollment in October, 1896, and also in October, 1906.

	October, 1895	October, 1906
Centre	194	258
North	174	312
West	61	82
East	46	57
South	29	42

South Row	19	20
North Row	15	21
Golden Cove	34	16
Totals	589	808
Net increase		219
Per cent. of incre	ease, over	37

The greatest increase has been in the North school The enrollment in the different rooms in October was as follows, beginning with the first primary: 46, 41, 40, 40, 41, 36, 38, 30. As forty pupils in a room is the maximum number recommended by the State authorities, the question of more room for the children of that village is one that will soon demand attention, if the present rate of increase continues, and if the present efficiency of the school is to be maintained.

Should there be as many to enter the first grade next year as there were last September. I would recommend that a portion come in the forenoon and the test in the afternoon as was done for a few weeks last fall. I believe the children will learn just as much, if not more, because of the better opportunity that the teacher has to attend to the needs of each child, an item of much importance when a child first enters school.

MEDICAL INSPECTION

The legislature of nineteen hundred six approved one of the most important recent acts of school legislation, the text of which is given below.

Acts of 1906, Chapter 502

An Act Relative to the Appointment of School Physicians

Section 1. The school committee of every city and town in the Commonwealth shall appoint one or more school physicians, shall assign one to each public school within its city or town, and shall provide them with all proper facilities for the performance of their duties as prescribed in this act: provided, however, that in cities wherein the board of health is already maintaining or shall hereafter maintain substantially such medical inspection as this act requires, the board of health shall appoint and assign the school physician.

Section 2. Every school physician shall make a prompt examination and diagnosis of all children referred to him as hereinafter provided, and such further examination of teachers, janitors and school buildings as in his opinion the protection of the health of the pupils may require.

Section 3. The school committee shall cause to be referred to a school physician for examination and diagnosis every child returning to school without a certificate from the board of health after absence on account of illness or from unknown cause; and every child in the schools under its jurisdiction who shows signs of being in ill health or of suffering from infectious or contagious disease, unless he is at once excluded from school by the teacher; except that in the case of schools in remote and isolated situations the school committee may make such other arrangements as may best carry out the purpose of this act.

Section 4. The school committee shall cause notice of the disease or defects, if any, from which any child is found to be suffering to be sent to his parent or guardian. Whenever a child shows symptoms of smallpox, scarlet fever, measles, chickenpox, tuberculosis, diphtheria or influenza, tonsilitis, whooping cough, mumps, scabies or trachoma, he shall be sent home immediately, or as soon as safe and proper conveyance can be found, and the board of health shall at once be notified.

Section 5. The school committee of every city and town shall cause every child in the public schools to be separately and carefully tested and examined at least once in every school year to ascertain whether he is suffering from defective sight or hearing or from any other disability or defect tending to prevent his receiving the full benefit of his school work, or requiring a modification of the school work in order to prevent injury to the child or to secure the best educational results. The tests of sight and hearing shall be made by teachers. The committee shall cause notice of any defect or disability requiring treatment to be sent to the parent or guardian of the child, and shall require a physical record of each child to be kept in such form as the state board of education shall prescribe:

Section 6. The state board of health shall prescribe the directions for tests of sight and hearing and the state board of education shall, after consultation with the state board of health, prescribe and furnish to school committees suitable rules of instruction, testcards, blanks, record books and other useful appliances for carrying out the purposes of this act, and shall provide for pupils in the normal schools instruction and practice in the best methods of testing the sight and hearing of children. The state board of education may expend during the year nineteen hundred and six a sum not greater than fifteen hundred dollars, and annually thereafter a sum not greater than five hundred dollars for the purpose of supplying the material required by this act.

SECTION 7. The expense which a city or town may incur by virtue of the authority herein vested in the school committee or board of health, as the case may be, shall not exceed the amount appropriated for that purpose in cities by the city council and in towns by a town meeting. The appropriation shall precede any expenditure or any indebtedness which may be incurred under this act, and the sum appropriated shall be deemed a sufficient appropriation in the municipality where it is made. Each appropriation need not specify to what section of the act it shall apply, and may be voted as a total appropriation to be applied in carrying out the purposes of the act.

Section 8. This act shall take effect on the first day of September in the year nineteen hundred and six [Approved June 20, 1906.

The teachers have tested the sight and hearing of the children with the following results.

EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS

According to chapter two hundred sixty-seven of the acts of nineteen hundred five, no child between the ages of fourteen and sixteen can be employed in any factory, workshop, or mercantile establishment unless he ean read at sight and write legibly simple sentences in the English language. This requirement is more clearly defined in the following act.

Acts of 1905, Chapter 284

An Act relative to the employment and school attendance of minors.

Section 1. The ability to read at sight and to write legibly simple sentences in the English language, which is required by chapter two hundred and sixty-seven of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and five, amending section twenty-eight of chapter one hundred and six of the Revised Laws, as a condition of the employment of certain minors in factories or otherwise, shall be construed as meaning, in the year nineteen hundred and six, such ability to read and write as is required for admission to the second grade, in the year nineteen hundred and seven such as is required for admission to the third grade, and in the year nineteen hundred and eight and thereafter such as is required for admission to the fourth grade of the public schools of the city or town in which such minors live.

Section 2. Minors to whom the said chapter two hundred and sixty-seven applies shall be permitted to work on Saturdays between the hours of six in the morning and seven in the evening, in mercantile establishments.

Section 3. This act shall take effect upon its passage. [Approved April 14, 1906.

MR. STEWART MACKAY

Mr. Stewart Mackay was just entering upon his twelfth year as a member of the school committee of Chelmsford when he died on the thirty-first day of March, 1906.

His thorough belief in the public schools, his persistent and conscientious study of the school problems, and his keen judgment made him a valuable member of the committee, and a citizen whose departure has been keenly felt.

CONCLUSION

The words of friendly counsel from those directly or indirectly connected with the schools, and the ready compliance with suggestions on the part of principals, teachers and others, have been deeply appreciated.

FREDERICK L. KENDALL,
Superintendent of Schools.

ANNUAL REPORT

of the

Trustees of the Adams Library

of the

TOWN OF CHELMSFORD

For the Year Ending February 28, 1907

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ADAMS LIBRARY

The Trustees of the Adams Library submit the following report:—

The Board was organized with these officers: Mr. J. Adams Bartlett, Chairman; Mr. Albert H. Davis, Secretary; Rev. Wilson Waters, Treasurer; and the usual committees were chosen for carrying on the work of the Library. The Treasurer's report is appended hereto.

The intelligent interest and efficient care with which the Librarian, Mr. Clark, assisted by Mrs. Clark, has performed his duties and otherwise added to the comfort and convenience of the Library, are appreciated by all. To the Librarian in particular is entrusted the care and preservation of the books which constitute the Library. But there should be a co-operation on the part of others who are allowed the privilege of handling the books. The Trustees especially, by nature of their office, share in this responsibility. But those who take the books to their homes and have them for a time in their personal keeping, are perhaps in the greatest degree answerable for the well-being of the books.

The Trustees therefore desire to direct the attention of the Library's patrons to the responsibility which rests upon readers as to the proper care of books. While there have been no cases of serious misusage, it seems well to urge greater consideration on the part of some; and to give a word of caution to careless readers. As far as the Trustees are aware, there have been, we are glad to say, no cases of deliberate or wanton marking or mutilation of books, such as cutting out any portion. For such misdemeanors the Statutes of the Commonwealth provide punishment by a fine of from $5 to $50, or imprisonment of not more than six months. There is also provided a similar punishment for wilful detention of books from the Library for more than 30 days after notice.

The attention of readers may well be called to certain points of considerable importance relating to the handling of books. Some of these points may seem trivial, but even those persons who have a genuine regard for books are sometimes thoughtless, especially when they have not immediate ownership of them, and so do unintentional damage. Because the books are purchased and delivered to readers at the Town's expense is no reason why they should be carelessly used. That which is not exclusively one's own should be carefully handled. Teachers and parents would do well to impress upon young readers the value of books and of cultivating a regard for them.

In the first place books should be kept clean. This is due to the books and to their next readers. There are several kinds of soap which might be recommended for this purpose, but the soap should never be applied directly to the books. Further directions on this point would seem to be unnecessary.

Books are often carried to and from the Library without due care. They are sometimes too tightly squeezed in a book-strap. They are sometimes dropped on a dusty road, or in snow or water; or they get wet in a rain storm.

These are some of the common ways of injuring books: Wetting the thumb or finger to turn over a leaf, or roughly taking hold of a leaf so as to tear the edge, especially in heavy books; wrenching open a new book in the middle and so "breaking its back." The proper way is to open a few leaves at a time. A book should not be left open; it catches dust and dirt; nor should it be laid open face down, for the same reason. Use a proper book-mark to keep your place—a slip of paper is the best—do not use pencils or articles of food, matches or tooth-picks, or a hand-kerchief, even though scented; if left long it gets the book out of shape, and the next reader may prefer wood-violet to musk. Do not make "dog ears" of the corners of the leaves. Do not read a book at a meal; the next reader does not care for samples of your menu. Do not set a tumbler of water or a hot tea cup on a book.

A handsomely printed book recently returned to the Library had been pressed flat open in the middle and disfigured by stains which made it evident that a greasy plate or pan had been resting upon it. Do not pile other books on an open book, or lean your elbows on it.

Stand a book on end or lay it on its side; do not stand it on its fore edge, especially a heavy book.

Folded maps or plates should be carefully closed on the original folds. Any insecurity or looseness of leaves in a book should be reported to the Librarian who will properly repair it; do not attempt it yourself.

Never mark a book with pencil or anything else.

In the Reading Room books taken from the shelves should be carefully returned to their proper places—not pushed roughly between crowded books. Do not try to pull a book from the shelf by taking hold of the projecting top of the binding, thus tearing it down the back. A slight pressure of the books on either side of the one desired will enable you to grasp the book half way down and thus avoid any strain upon it.

The Library aims to furnish only good books; and good books should be treated as friends, friends who are unable to resent or repel shabby treatment.

The circulation for the year has been 10,557 volumes. Fiction, 62.8 per cent.; General Works, 18.4 per cent; Travel and Description, 3.6 per cent.; History, 3.4 per cent.; Literature, 3.1 per cent.; Biography, 2.2 per cent.; Natural Science, 2.1; Sociology, 1.2 per cent.; Fine Arts, 1.1 per cent.; Useful Arts, 1.1 per cent.; Religion and Philosophy, 1 per cent.

The Library has been open to the public 199 sessions, or 806 hours.

The attendance in the reading room has been 2,926, an average of 15 each session.
